

Speciality: Primary school teaching

University: Sumgayit State University

Faculty: Philology

Study level: Bachelor

Duration of studies (semesters-years): 8 semesters-4 years

Availability of specialisation: Primary school teaching

Availability of foundation year: Yes

Language(s) of instruction: Azerbaijani

Qualification:

Minimum requirements: Application form addressed to the University Management, indicating speciality, study level, academic year and study form;

Appropriately legalised (or supplied with Apostille) relevant document indicating relevant study level and records for all years and its notarized copy in Azerbaijani language;

Notarized copy of the Passport or other border crossing document;

Notarized copy of the Identity Document;

Six photos sized 3 x 4 cm;

Reference certifying that the person is not carrier of a virus of any disease included in the list of dangerous infectious diseases (Human Immunodeficiency Virus Infection, Hepatitis B and Hepatitis C) approved by the relevant executive authority;

Proof of Language Proficiency (if available);

Copies of the Certificates, Diplomas and other relevant documents (if available).

Short description of the study programme:

The educational program for primary school teaching includes the following provisions:

- oral and written communication skills in the Azerbaijani language;
- ability to listen, observe, put forward and substantiate new ideas;
- the ability to use information technology in professional activities, to have a general and pedagogical culture, to analyze their experience individually and in groups;
- the ability to interpret teaching material, visual aids in an understandable, clear, expressive, convincing and consistent manner, to stimulate the development of cognitive interests and spiritual needs, to increase learning and cognitive activity;
- the ability to establish pedagogically purposeful communication with students, their parents, colleagues and the leadership of the educational institution;
- develops skills in teaching methods and techniques and the ability to design and produce materials for language lessons and curriculum;
- to be able to manage time and complete tasks on time.

During their education, students test their teaching methods under the supervision of an experienced teacher and gain valuable work experience during pedagogical practice in schools.

In one academic year, a student takes 3 colloquiums on each subject in each semester, and an exam at the end of each semester. According to the current rules, a student who fails the exam can retake the exam in only 2 subjects.

Fees: 1400 USD

Admission stages:

- Fulfillment of application form by the foreign student
- Submission of invitation letter by the University for eligible applicants
- Payment of tuition fee
- Visa procedures
- Registration of students by presenting the documents to the University
- Interviewing

Deadline is September 15.