

Speciality: Social psychological service in education

University: Sumgayit State University

Faculty: Philology

Study level: Bachelor

Duration of studies (semesters-years): 8 semesters-4 years

Availability of specialisation: Social psychological service in education

Availability of foundation year: Yes

Language(s) of instruction: Azerbaijani

Qualification: Social psychological service in education

Minimum requirements: Application form addressed to the University Management, indicating speciality, study level, academic year and study form;

Appropriately legalised (or supplied with Apostille) relevant document indicating relevant study level and records for all years and its notarized copy in Azerbaijani language;

Notarized copy of the Passport or other border crossing document;

Notarized copy of the Identity Document;

Six photos sized 3 x 4 cm;

Reference certifying that the person is not carrier of a virus of any disease included in the list of dangerous infectious diseases (Human Immunodeficiency Virus Infection, Hepatitis B and Hepatitis C) approved by the relevant executive authority;

Proof of Language Proficiency (if available);

Copies of the Certificates, Diplomas and other relevant documents (if available).

Short description of the study programme:

To acquire knowledge about the scientific and methodological bases, areas of psychological service in the education system, the activities of a practical psychologist, the features of the work of psychological services in preschool institutions and schools; to teach the role of a practical psychologist in the organization of psychological services in the education system and the application of psychological knowledge to school life; Psychological services in the education system range from psychological knowledge to examination, diagnostics, correction, consultation, etc. in educational institutions. to get acquainted with separate sections of the system of practical activity providing for complex use for the purposes; to form in students the knowledge necessary for the education system in the field of practical psychology. To deepen the theoretical knowledge of students, to provide them with scientific and methodological bases of psychological services in education, history of development, activities of practical psychologists in the education system, areas of psychological services in the education system, psychological services in preschool institutions, schools to instill knowledge and skills in the relevant field by introducing the features of the work.

In one academic year, a student takes 3 colloquiums on each subject in each semester, and an exam at the end of each semester. According to the current rules, a student who fails the exam can retake the exam in only 2 subjects.

Fees: 1400 USD

Admission stages:

- Fulfillment of application form by the foreign student
- Submission of invitation letter by the University for eligible applicants
- Payment of tuition fee
- Visa procedures
- Registration of students by presenting the documents to the University
- Interviewing

Deadline is September 15.