

Specialty: Politology

University: Sumgait State University

Faculty: History and Geography

Education level: Bachelor

Duration of study: 8 semesters - 4 years

Availability of specialization: The political processes in Azerbaijan

Preparation availability period: 10 months

Language of instruction: Azerbaijani

Qualification: Political scientist

Minimum Requirements:

Application form addressed to the University Management, indicating speciality, study level, academic year and study form;

Appropriately legalised (or supplied with Apostille) relevant document indicating relevant study level and records for all years and its notarized copy in Azerbaijani language;

Notarized copy of the Passport or other border crossing document;

Notarized copy of the Identity Document;

Six photos sized 3 x 4 cm;

Reference certifying that the person is not carrier of a virus of any disease included in the list of dangerous infectious diseases (Human Immunodeficiency Virus Infection, Hepatitis B and Hepatitis C) approved by the relevant executive authority;

Proof of Language Proficiency (if available);

Copies of the Certificates, Diplomas and other relevant documents (if available).

Short description of the study programme:The specialty education program includes the humanities, vocational training, elective courses, internships and final attestation. The total number of credits is 240, the full-time tuition is 30 semesters, and the weekly workload is 24 academic hours. If part-time education is selected (partial involvement in education) (minimum 2 subjects), the number of credits earned and weekly class hours may be less.

Bachelors in Politology may be involved in professional activities in specific research, practical activities, etc. areas. As a result of mastering the curriculum, students acquire skills such as the ability to use knowledge of the profession, be ready for professional, project-analytical, political-organizational, expert-advisory activities in enterprises and organizations, to carry out political analysis of the political life of the society and the activities of its institutions. Graduates with a degree in Politology can work in government, public organizations, advisory centers, and political-oriented structures.

In one academic year, a student takes 3 colloquiums on each subject in each semester, and an exam at the end of each semester. According to the current rules, a student who fails the exam can retake the exam in only 2 subjects.

Fees: 1400 USD

Admission stages:

- Fulfillment of application form by the foreign student
- Submission of invitation letter by the University for eligible applicants
- Payment of tuition fee
- Visa procedures
- Registration of students by presenting the documents to the University
- Interviewing

Deadline is September 15.